

FESTA dell'OLIO NUOVO

featuring olio nuovo from davero's dry creek estate

january 9, 2007

In Italy, olio nuovo is a coveted treat, with strong, feisty flavors well suited to winter dishes. Those of you who have had ours before know that it's something very special, and short-lived: we offer it only through the winter. We're sure you'll find that it's a wonderful addition to your kitchen... there's simply nothing better!
